Congratulations on using the CareerHQ Compass inclusive of the Career Key® to arrive at a short-list of career choices suited to your interests, strengths and aspirations.

Next Steps

Hopefully our CareerHQ Compass has helped you create several career options that inspire you and support your interests, strengths and personal objectives in life.

The Compass will have been most useful if it has reassured you about your career or study choices, or it has revealed new possibilities you want to explore.

If it hasn't supported a prior career choice or an anticipated career change, don't automatically drop your plans. Instead, spend a little more time investigating the career you have chosen as well as the occupations suggested by the CareerHQ Compass.

Whether you are clear on your preferred career or study direction, or you have more thinking to do, the next step is to convert your CareerHQ Compass results into actions and outcomes.

This includes possibly getting expert support from a career coach to discuss and review your shortlisted career options, and to work with them in securing an appropriate position in your chosen occupation.

It doesn't end there. Any time over the next 2 months you can log in and review your My CareerHQ file and revise your answers and options.

And you can access and review your file at any time in the future when you wish to review your career.

Here's to an inspiring life and a great career.
